

Such a Time as This

Given to Marilyn Middleton on January 20, 2023

These words came to me Friday morning with such power I felt I needed to write them down to share with you.

When I get something like this from the Lord it edifies me, brings me much joy. It is oil for my lamp.

The words were given to me, but they are not just for me. I am to share them with as many as I can so that all may be lifted up with the knowledge that God is working in the lives of all His children and has blessings for all who seek and do His Will.

Such a Time as This

I was born
For such a time as this
The words ring loud
And true.
I was born
For such a time as this
And so were You!

What does this mean?
What can I say?
What is this time?
What role am I to play?

I need to see it clearly
Before I can begin,
Or am I in the midst of living
And all will be added in?

Some things I know
Right now
This world needs
Truth and light.
God's love will
Light the darkness
To overcome our night

Our night of
Fear and doubting
Our night of
Anger and hate
Our night of
Pain and Sorrow
Our night which
We create.

Our night of
Death and Sickness
Our night of
Selfishness and Greed
Our night of
Carnal pleasure
For all this night
We're freed.

So what am
I to do?
What are you
To do?
We each have
A part to play
A job to do
A message to convey.

Spread the Joy
Christ brings for all
Witness of Him, always
Seek God's direction
Heed His Words
Be His Hands and Feet
On earth
Each day.
Serve others
As you pray.

Live the life
That others will see
The Peace
The Joy
The Freedom
That comes
When we let Jesus
Lead us
To God's Kingdom.

Serve others
Think less of self
Shine your light so free
To all you see
Be the person
God created you
To be!

I was born
For such a time as this
The words ring loud and true.
I was born
For such a time as this
And so were You!
